

Jefferson Airplane - Greasy Heart

Tom: C

Am
Lady, you keep asking why he likes you how come
Am
Wonder why he wants more if he just had some
Em D Am
Boys, she's got more to play with in the way of toys

Am
Ladies eyes go off and on with a finger full of glue
Am
Lips are drawn upon her face in come-to-me tattoo
Em D Am
Creamy suntan color that fades when she bathes

Am
Paper dresses catch on fire & you lose her in the haze
F G Am
Don't ever change lady, he likes you that way

Am
Because he just had his hair done and he wants to use your wig
Am
He's going off the drug thing cause his veins are getting big

Em D Am
He wants to sell his paintings but the market is slow

Am
They're only paying him two grams now for a one-man abstract show

F G Am
Don't ever change people even if you can
Am
You are your own best toy to play with remote control hands
Am
Made for each other made in Japan
Em D Am
Woman with a greasy heart, automatic man
Am
Don't ever change people your face will hit the fan
F G Am
Don't ever change people even if you can
Em D
Don't change before the empire falls You'll laugh so hard you'll crack the
walls
