

Jennifer Kamikazi - Start Again

Tom: Gb

You are the wild one, and I the tamed
 You think more with your heart than I use my head
 And you are the dreamer, and I calculate
 You put your thoughts in journals I write a song instead

And just as Iron sharpens iron
 So you are my friend
 And if I said I didn't need you I'd be lying
 Say you are my friend

Cause if not then, we'll start again, start aga...in
 Cause if not then, we'll start again, again
 Cause if not then, we'll start again, start aga...in
 Cause if not then, we'll start again, again

Cause if not then, we'll start again, again

When I am hard-hearted, you're compassionate
 We both think your temper is more than we can take
 Tell me it's you and I, you and me against the world
 And tell me we'll overcome every obstacle

And just as Iron sharpens iron
 So you are my friend
 And if I said I didn't need you I'd be lying
 Say you are my friend

Cause if not then, we'll start again, start aga...in
 Cause if not then, we'll start again, again
 Cause if not then, we'll start again, start aga...in
 Cause if not then, we'll start again, again
