                  F
Intro: F  Dm  Bb  C

                        F
I dreamed of calling Paris home
                        Dm
Now everything just seems a mess
                  Bb
Surrounded, but so alone
             C
Expected to be this huge success
                        F
It's best to just forget it all
               Dm
A fantasy and nothing more
                    Bb
Just paper dreams built to fall
             C
Hang it all up and close the door

F
Reaching out
Dm
   To find the person I can be
Bb
   Is it enough to just be me?
C
   I feel like settin' myself free

                    G
I've got dreams to see me through
                           Em
But will they just remain inside?
                C
I want to see the word brand new
                D
Why do I always run and hide?

G
Reaching out
Em
   To find the person I can be
C
   Is it enough to just be me?
D
   I feel like setting myself free
   G
I need this now
Em
   To say the things I want to say
C
   There's got to be another way
D                                  Bb
   I want to leave, I need to stay

G
   Is it enough to just be me?
