

Jerry Lee Lewis - I'd do It All Again

Tom: C

Well the band was on its final break
 When he came walking in
 The lines that showed more than his age
 He was drunk worn and thin
 He sat down behind the ol' piano
 And he ran through a couple of notes
 And he said would somebody buy me a drink boys
 To kinda help me clear my throat
 And he said what would you give to hear a song
 What prize do memories bring
 It ain't every day you get to hear
 A living legend sing
 I may forget a line or two
 A few words now and then
 It takes a drink to make me think

And live it all again

This gray you see don't bother Jerry Lee
 And neither do these lines
 I may have seen some better days boys
 But God knows I ain't reached my prime
 I've got some scars from a woman's war
 And playing those one-night stands
 Lord only knows if I had the time
 I'd do it all again

Yes I could still make 'em dance
 Like I did in San Antone
 And I can still make 'em cry
 And I can touch 'em with a song
 I can still yet turn 'em on
 The way that I did back then
 Lord only knows if I had the time
 I'd do it all again
