

Jerry Lee Lewis - It Hurt Me So

Tom: C

It hurt me so (it hurt me so)
 You'll never know how much it hurt me
 To see you with another boy
 You just tore up a world of joy
 You'll never know (you'll never know)
 You'll never know (you'll never know)
 It hurt me so
 If it could show (if it could show)
 If you could know how much you hurt me
 You'd sat and cry and when you're through
 You'd realize my need for you

You'll never know (you'll never know)
 You'll never know (you'll never know)
 It hurt me so
 I thought we had a world that could not perish
 But now I'm sad we've just the past to cherish
 But always I (but always I)
 Remember you and how you hurt me
 I'll get by just set and cry
 And wonder why you left me
 You'll never know (you'll never know)
 You'll never know (you'll never know)
 It hurt me so
 (You'll never know you'll never know)
 It hurt me so (it hurt me so)
