

Jerry Lee Lewis - Play Me a Song I Can Cry To

Tom: G

I set in with a band down in Dallas
 I'd been introduced as a guest
 When a little white haired man approached the bandstand
 He said I wonder if you'd play one last request
 Oh please play me a song I can cry to Sad songs are music to my ears
 Play me a song I can cry to
 Play me a song that sounds like tears

I stood by as the band started playing
 And I didn't even try to play along
 For my eyes had followed him back to the corner
 Where he sat down at a table all alone
 Then a smile slowly came across his teardrops
 And I watched as he slowly bowed his head
 Just before he left this world for one much better
 I remembered the little lonely man had said
 Play me a song that sounds like tears
