                                                                We're taking back what's ours
[Primeira Parte]
                                                                [Refrão]
I still believe
                                                                I will be there
In birds and in bees
                                                                You will be there
In you and me

Up on these hills
These cities that spill
                                                                Just you and me
They painted the sky
