

Jessie Murph - I Hope It Hurts

tom:
B

Abm
I met a man in Miami-Dade
Ebm
I almost died when he looked my way
B E7M
I felt the Moon setting too soon
Abm
He held my hand on the interstate
Ebm
It'd been a while since I felt this way
B E7M
I bet too soon, I bet on you

Dbm
I'm not this dumb, not again
Dbm7
It hit the heart and knocked the wind
Gb
It knocked the door, I don't care

It opened up, I saw it there
Ebm
And what a lie and what a game

I doused it all in gasoline
Abm Gb B
I went home and you went up in flames

Dbm7 Gb7
And I hope it burns, and I won't be there
Ebm Abm Gb B
I hope it hurts everywhere
Dbm7 Gb B Gb Abm Gb
You're gonna learn I'm happy to lose
E
But I hope you hurt, 'cause God knows I do

I lit the match and I walked away
Ebm
I said no words and I left the state
B E Dbm
Smoke in my eyes, I sat and cried
Abm
Headed north through the Everglades
Ebm
Georgia line felt like Heaven's gate
B E
It broke me in two, ten thousand miles

Dbm
I'm not this dumb, not again
Dbm7
It hit the heart and knocked the wind
Gb
It knocked the door, I don't care

It opened up, I saw it there
Ebm
And what a lie and what a game

I doused it all in gasoline
Abm Bbm B
And I went home and you went up in flames
