Couldn't be, couldn't be, couldn't be

[Verse 1]
I heard that men, men never choose
The one that they really love is the one that they lose
She ends up being the one they daydream about
In a suburban house with a woman he settled for
She was better for him, I guess
God bless, but it couldn't be me, yeah

[Chorus]
D She's got her face beat, and she's always home
Em And she put to sleep every dream of her own (Yeah)
D And she lets you go cheat, long as you come home
Em From searching the streets for someone like the one you let go
[Post-Chorus]
A Couldn't be me, baby (Couldn't be, couldn't be, couldn't be)
D Like the one you let go
D Couldn't be me, baby (Couldn't be, couldn't be, couldn't be)

Like the one you let go
Em A
Couldn't be me, baby (Couldn't be, couldn't be, couldn't be)

[Verse 2]
I heard that girls, girls never learn
Change everything 'bout myself, hopin' I'd get a turn (Yeah)
Just to be the one he daydream about
In a two-bedroom house with a wife he don't even love
She was easier, I guess
God bless, but it couldn't be me, yo (Couldn't be me)

[Chorus]

Em And she put to sleep every dream of her own (Yeah)
D And she lets you go cheat, long as you come home
Em From searching the streets for someone like the one you let go

[Post-Chorus]
D Couldn't be me, baby (Couldn't be, couldn't be, couldn't be)
A Like the one you let go
D Couldn't be me, baby (Couldn't be, couldn't be, couldn't be)
