```

[Primeira Parte]

```
G                    D
The disc brakes drag
                  C    Bb     Am          Em
The chequered flag sweeps across the oil-slick track
G                    D
 The young man's home; dry as a bone
C    Bb    Am          Em
 His helmet off, he waves: The crowd waves back
A                    D      Bm          Gbm
 One lap victory roll. Gladiator soul
                   Bm              C
The taker of the day in winning has to say
```

[Refrão]

```
G          D         C              A
 Isn't it grand to be playing to the stand
A         D
 Dead or alive
G          D         C              A
 Isn't it grand to be playing to the stand
A         D        D7
 Dead or alive
```

[Segunda Parte]

```
G                    D
 The sunlight streaks through the curtain cracks
C   Bb     Am        Em
Touches the old man where he sleeps
G                    D
 The nurse brings up a cup of tea
      C      Bb     Am            Em
Two biscuits and the morning paper mystery
A                    D        Bm          Gbm
 The hard road's end, the white God's-send
                 Bm                  C
Is nearer everyday, in dying the old man says
```

[Refrão]

```
G          D         C                A
 Isn't it grand to be playing to the stand
A         D
 Dead or alive
G          D         C                A
 Isn't it grand to be playing to the stand
A         D      D7
 Dead or alive

( Cadd9  G   C )
( G   G   G   G )
```

[Segunda Parte]

```
G                    D
 The still-born child can't feel the rain
C         Bb       Am            Em
 As the chequered flag falls once again
G                    D
 The deaf composer completes his final score
C    Bb    Am        Em
 He'll never hear the sweet encore
A                    D    Bm          Gbm
 The chequered flag, the bull's red rag
                           Bm
The lemming-hearted hordes
                     C
Running ever faster to the shore singing
```

[Refrão]

```
G          D         C                A
 Isn't it grand to be playing to the stand
A         D
 Dead or alive
G          D         C                A
 Isn't it grand to be playing to the stand
A         D
 Dead or alive
G          D         C                A
 Isn't it grand to be playing to the stand
A         D
 Dead or alive
G          D         C                A
 Isn't it grand to be playing to the stand
A         D      D7
 Dead or alive
```
