

Jim Croce - Railroad Song

tom:

Intro: D, ^ADadd9

[verse 1]

When I ^{Bm}was a boy
^GIn the days of the ^Dtrain
 I'd sit by the ^{Bm}tracks
 On a ^Along summer day
 And I'd wave to the ^Gbrakeman
 And he'd wave back at me ^D
 While the ^{Bm}thunderclouds ^Arolled
 Out of east ^DTennessee

[verse 2]

But the ^{Bm}dreams of a boy
^GDisappear when you're ^Dgrown
 And though I may ^{Bm}dream
 The ^Arailroads are gone
 The ties they are ^Grotten
 And the ^Dtracks shot to ^{Bm}hell ^A

Along with my dreams

^{D G D}
 And the old railroad bell

[chorus]

In my ^Gdreams I ^Aride the ^Drails to California
 Working ^Gdinners and ^Afarms along the ^Dway
 Or I'd hop a ^Gride to ^Ahide across the ^Dborder
 With a ^Gblack eyed girl ^Abeside all the ^Dway

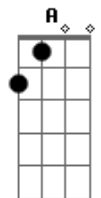

[verse 3]

Now the ^{Bm}mountains are ^Gsilent
 And the ^Drailroads are gone
 And the ^{Bm}coal towns no longer
 Hear the ^Aminers at dawn
 But the ^Gtrain whistle ^Dshrills
 Out her ^Dmemories to me
 While the ^{Bm}thunderclouds ^Arolled
 Out of east ^DTennessee

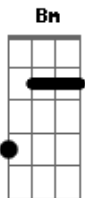

[chorus]

[verse 3]
