How did we get to this place?
            D
I thought that we would have settled this by now
          D
I thought that blood was thicker than mud
        D A
I guess I was wrong
If love was a ship sailing oceans deep
Then your ship's sinkin' cuz it sprung a leak
You'll learn the truth but it may take a while
Because you're livin' in a world of denial
Base (Guitarra 1): Em Bm D A Em Bm D A
Solo (Guitarra 2):
Em Bm D
All we have is our family an' our friends
  Bm D A
Why let this thing come to a painful end?
I thought that we'd embrace
               Em
Instead we pull away
        D
 Bm
I guess I was wrong
If love was a ship sailing oceans deep

But it won't be me who'll go runnin' scared
You'll learn the truth but it may take a while
Cause you're just livin' in a world of denial
