

Joan Shelley - Where I'll Find You

	tom:		Oh what I'd do
			[Refrão]
I saw you there ^C		^C	^F
Beside the light post ^{Am}			Tell me where to land, I'll aim this
Your shoulders square ^C			^F
Against the night's cold ^{Am}			Ship onto your sand ^C
I blamed the wind when my legs shook ^F			Where I'll find you ^F
But your eyes, that hungry look ^F			Tie me to the banks and hold me ^F
It shot through me ^C			Safe from all the storms that form behind me ^C
Didn't you see? ^G			Out on the blank sea ^G
And now I dream ^C			And take my hands ^C
I dream of you and me ^{Am}			My idle time ^{Am}
Out in the fall ^C			Push them to plant ^C
Always the fall ^{Am}			The forms to find ^{Am}
I see the ground we walked and claimed ^F			That it was all we had to do ^F
I see the place that holds the weight ^F			Reach the highest limb for fruit ^B
The size of you ^C			That was for you ^C
			Only for you ^G
