

João Peep - Edge Of Fifteen

C

Never knew I could cause so much trouble
 In a new city, with new friends
 If I can call any of them that I never knew I didn't need to be worried
 To find someone knew, someone to call my boo
 Know I am slowly
 'Cause in my perfect future, I would never be here
 You gimme the whole world in a room
 But I lost the keys
 'Cause I'm on the edge of fifteen
 Know all my secrets and avenues I've crossed
 Will keep living in a fever dream
 I'm on the edge of fifteen
 My past self would be proud that I've learned
 How to play in the both of teams
 I'm on the edge
 Now I know opportunities are just a fucking hoax
 I only have a life don't wanna waste my time
 Being someone I don't like
 It's like I know nothing, but everything
 "Be a teenager sucks", I listened this too much
 Not for me, sixteen looks good as fuck
 My future is now, I can be whatever I wanna be
 I found but dropped the keys
 I think I'm finally free

'Cause I'm on the edge of fifteen
 Saving for later but doing it know
 'Cause I'm tired of be holding fears
 I'm on the edge of fifteen
 Vanity is good, If I don't think of myself
 Then they me, who will gonna be?
 This is the edge
 I can keep my faith
 "If God's for me, who's again't?"
 Time can solve anything in this world
 Know I'm the difference
 Don't keep insisting
 "Let my yes be yes and my no be no"
 All of my livings taught me that I have to learn more
 Stopped giving strangers the right to make me insecure
 Lost in the invisible
 I think I can find my way home
 But now I'm on the edge (of fifteen)
 Having priorities, loving a lil' bit more
 'Cause this world needs a fit
 I'm on the edge of fifteen
 Leaving my comfort zone
 And finding it was anything but comfort that shit
 This is the edge
 Yeah, this is the edge
 Yeah, this is the edge
 Never knew I could cause so much trouble
