(Mesma sequência de Acordes)

Ten hours is too much time to think

I wrote a song Id never sing

About a queen who lost her crown

About a boy who almost drowned

These angels city lights are mine

I wont forget to leave behind

These five days of summer in the rain

Now Im falling towards the ground

Its coming at me way too fast

You dont learn to fly

If youre not prepared to crash

Shes the sunlight in my eyes

Shes a bittersweet goodbye

And I just cant tell you why

I let her break my heart again

Those five days of summer in the rain

In the rain
Those five days of summer in the rain
In the rain
Those five days of summer
