

Joe Jonas - What This Could Be

tom:
B (forma dos acordes no tom de G )
Capostrate na 4ª casa

I used to say my mind was made up
I couldn't take another breakup
But I've been played like I'm a gamer
You changed the rules, my heart is made
For making mistakes, more than a few
Dreams not a lie, it's okay to be fools
And say some dumb shit that might not come true
I'd give up my peace of mind to Lose my mind again with you
Oh, it might not be safe, but I'm willing to hope
To mean what I say when I say what I know
We're talking real close, your eyes are open
We're having conversations
That our bodies should be making
A fantasy you are, what this could be

Thought I lost sight, oh, all the feeling
Was sleepwalking and restless dreaming
But dreams are made by waking up here
We're all afraid (afraid), but our hearts
(our hearts) Are made
For making mistakes, more than a few
Dreams not a lie, it's okay to be fools
And say some dumb shit that might not come true
I'd give up my peace of mind to lose my mind again with you
Oh, it might not be safe, but I'm willing to hope
To mean what I say when I say what I know
We're talking real close, your eyes are open
We're having conversations while our bodies should be making them
(Ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh, ooh)
(Ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh, ooh)
I'm a fantasy, oh, what this could be
