

John Denver - Come And Let Me Look In Your Eyes

Tom: E

I guess growing isn't hard to do
 Just stand a-against the wall
 Once I was just two feet high
 Today I'm six feet tall
 But knowing who to listen to
 Is some-thing else again

Words just whis-tle round my head

Like seasons in the wind

Note: The verses are all the same as this.

Refrão:

All across the water the clouds are sailing
 They won't let me look at the sky
 All I want to do is try and find myself
 Come and let me look in your eyes
