      A           A           A
Sing songs of the sunrise into the nigh
      A           A           A
the stars as a timepiece make it all right
      A           A           A
Make friends with the darkness, talk to the moon
      A           A
and when the light lifts,
          A           A
you can let out a tune

   A           A                     A
Then to the mountains, climbed through the sky
      A               A                   A
They showed there their whiteness, watched their gold fly
   A           A
Shared in their treasures, shook at their might
      A           A           C
Spoke softly in wonders... cowboy's delight
