

John Lennon - John Sinclair

Tom: E

E It ain't fiar John Sinclair. E In the stir for breathing air.

A Won't you care for John Sinclair? A In the stir for breathing air.

E Let him be, set him free. E Let him be like you and me.

B They gave him ten for two. A What else can Judge Columba do?

G We got to, got to, got to, got to, got to, got to, got to, got to, got to, got to,

E got to, got to, got to, got to, got to, got to, got to, got to set him free.

E If he was a soldier man shooting Gooks in Vietnam.

A If he was the CIA A selling dope and making hay.

E He'd be free, they'd let him be. E Breathing air like you and me.

B They gave him ten for two. A What else can Judge Columba do?

G

We got to, got to, got to, got to, got to, got to, got to, got to, got to,

E got to, got to, got to, got to, got to, got to, got to, got to set him free.

B They gave him ten for two. A And they got and too.

G We got to, got to, got to, got to, got to, got to, got to, got to, got to,

E got to, got to, got to, got to, got to, got to, got to, got to set him free.

E Was he jailed for what he done or representing everyone? E

A Free John now if we can. A From the clutches of the man.

E Let him be, lift the lid. E Bring him to his wife and kids. All right.

B The gave him ten to two. A What else can the bastards do?

G We got to, got to, got to, got to, got to, got to, got to, got to, got to, got to,

E got to, got to, got to, got to, got to, got to, got to, got to set him free.

Acordes

