

Tom: C

John Lennon - Mind Games

```
You just can't beat all those mi...nd guerilla,
                                                                                                                F Am
                                                                                                    absolute elsewhere in the stones of your mind.

G C - G Am

Yeah, we're playing those mind games forever,
Intro: C - G - Am - C - F - Am - D - C
G C - G Am - C

1. We're playing those mind games together,
F - Am D - C

pushing the barriers, planting seeds.
G C-G Am - C

Playing the mi...nd guerrila
                                                                                                    projecting our images in space and in time.

C D G - G7 Em - G
                                                                                                    Yes is the answer and you know that's
     Playing the mi...nd guerrila

F - Am D - C

chanting the mantra, peace on earth.

G C - G Am

We all been playing those mind games forever,

F - Am D - C

some kinda druid dudes, lifting the veil.

G C-G Am - C

Doing the mi...nd guerilla, sure.
C D G - G7 Em
                                                                                                  Yes is surrender you gotta let it you gotta let it go.
                                                                                                                                          С
                                                                                              C - G Am - C

3. So keep on playing those mind games together,

F - Am D - C

doing the ritual dance in the sun.

G C - G Am - C

Millions of mi...nd guerillas,

F
      Doing the mi...nd guerilla, some call it magic, the search for the grail. C D G - G7 Em - putting their soul power to the Karmic wheel.

G C - G Am - C

Keep on playing those mind games forever,

F - Am D - C -

raising the spirits of peace and love.
      Love is the answer, and you know that's for D G - G7 Em
                                                                                                                                                             D - C - D
      Love is a flower, you gotta let it you gotta
                                                                                                    C - G - Am - C
Lo....ve.
G C - G Am - C
I want you to make love, not war, D - C
                                                                                                      C - G - Am - C - F - Am - D - C
C - G Am

2. So keep on playing those mind games together,
F - Am D - C
faith in the future outta the now.
                                                                                                    F - Am D I know you've heard it before...
Acordes
```

D - C - D

