 Intro: G F Am7 C

Verse 1

G F Am7 C
 A room sometimes is a body with the loneliest view
 G F
 and porch lights grow dim with every onsetting hour
 Am7 C G
 and the stars seem so finite to you

Chorus 1

Am7 G
 but love it ain't like the chemicals, babe
 F Am7 G
 cuz the chemicals don't hang around Am7 G
 everybody's drilling for a fountain of youth

F Am7 C G
 losing years on the way down
 F Am7 C G
 losing years on the way down

Bridge

C G
 But I wanna love you when the blood of my veins don't know how to C Am7 C
 call out your name, yeah I wanna love you when the birds don't hang around

Chorus 3

but love it ain't like the chemicals, babe
 cuz the chemicals don't hang around everybody's drilling for a fountain of youth
 C G Bb A G
 but sometimes in these fountains they drown
