

John Mark McMillan - Daylight

Tom: F

(com acordes na forma de C ) Capotraste na 5ª casa

Daylight comes to meet you on the road like a prodigal son, a prodigal hope that you gave up on, when you were young but daylight is coming on

We live on the edge, on the edge of a darkness
We live on the edge, on the edge of a darkness

Heaven bends low for the naked and the poor to settle up a debt, to settle up a score to set up a table on the edge of a war cause we've been bleeding on the edge of the sword

The boardwalk is painted red with the blood Of a thousand prospective heroes but one Still cries out beyond all the grave and the flood Where the blackest abysses cannot overcome
