Gbm7   Gbm7
Raise your voice
               Gbm7
Chase away the ghosts
                      Dbm
The pain that haunts a heart
                  E7
The things we fear the most
              Gbm7
The entropy of life
                Gbm7
The slow decay of time
                 Dbm   E7
That wars against our bones
              Gbm7
All these sinking ships
                Gbm7
Are ruled against the waves
               Dbm
The raging of the tide
              E7
The tyranny of days
                    Gbm7
And sleep would chase us down
                Gbm7
Sleep would have its way
                 Dbm   E7

And night would fall upon us all

          Dbm   E   Gbm7   Gbm7
But I believe you can overcome my economy
                           Dbm   E
Gbm7
You can dig me out of the grave
Gbm7 Dbm E   Gbm7   Gbm7
I believe you can overcome my economy
                           Dbm   E
Gbm7   Gbm7
You can dig me out of the grave

     Gbm7   Gbm7
The weight of love
              Gbm7
It rests upon us all
                Dbm
The people we've become
                       E7
The people that we've known
                   Gbm7
Longing for a day
                Gbm7
Arrested by a hope
                   Dbm   E7
That death could not foreclose upon
