

John Mark Pantana - On Your Mind

tom:
C
Two o'clock in the morning inside
C
Simple life, I've been sippin all night
F
I was high as a kite in the summer of two thirteen
C
Deep down in my heart was shame
C
Didn't know You, didn't know where it came from
F
All the silent treatment that I felt
C
You were rude and hated from the page
C
Had a wrong view had a strong pain
F
I had gone and thought you were wrong for me

Bb
And even then
F
And even then
C
And even then

F
I was on Your mind
C
Before the world began
F
I was on Your mind
C
Even on my darkest day
F
You know even then
C
I was on Your mind

C
Nine o'clock in the morning on time
C

Busy life, I've been workin all night
F
I was dry as a light in the summer of two sixteen
C
Deep down in my heart was stress
C
I didn't show it but I didn't know how to hold it
F
All the burden bearing on my chest
C
We are one but I worked it on my own
C
Had a wrong view, had it alone
F
I had gone and thought you weren't there for me
Bb
And even then
F
And even then
C
And even then

F
I was on Your mind
C
Before the world began
F
I was on Your mind
C
Even on my darkest day
F
You know even then
C
I was on Your mind

C
I was on Your mind
F
I was on Your mind
C
I was on Your mind
F
I was on Your mind
C
I was on Your mind
