John Mayer - Somebody Loves You

Tom: C

   C                              Dm7
You and I, we were born out of the same pain
   C
And when we found our way to one another
                      Dm7
We were bleeding from the same vein
F                          Dm7
Sometimes you'll have to go off to see without me
F                                 Dm7
Now you can bring a song you can sing when you're lonely

C              Dm7              C
Dm7
Somebody loves you. Somebody loves you. Somebody loves you.
Somebody loves you

C
Dm7
Sometimes I think that this is not your first dance across the life time
Dm7
```

Tell it to the afterlife and ghosts that came before us at the same time
F                                       Dm7
Sooner or later the wind's gonna take you when I won't
          F                             Dm7
When you want to pretend that we lose in the end, baby please don't

C              Dm7              C
Dm7
Somebody loves you. Somebody loves you. Somebody loves you.
Somebody loves you

              Dm7              C\E
When you're losing your life at the end of the day
           F              C
Feeling last in line to lay, claim to your name
       Dm7              C\E
When you feel like your heart is on constant display
Bb                    G
Fall into your arms and remember to say
       C              Dm7
Somebody loves me. Somebody loves me
```
