

John Michael Howell - Queen & Poet

tom: E [Intro] Em

[Primeira Parte]

You're the fairest in all of the land
 Many of kings and their kingdoms have fought for your hand
 And I know I'm no royal man
 But if I could give you the world with my paper and pen

I'd write all night
 Lyrics and rhymes
 Tracing these lines through
 Sing these words to the sky
 Hoping they find you

Darling, you're a queen
 And I'm just a poet writing these songs
 Hoping you'll notice, notice me
 'Cause I'm just a helpless fool for you
 I'll write this love 'til my hands are numb
 Darling, I'll sing to kingdom come
 You're a queen
 And I'm just a poet writing these songs for you

As long as my heart has a beat
 There's not a tower too high for these rhythms to reach
 And I'll scale these walls just like notes on a string

Sing songs in your halls 'til you hear symphonies

I'd write all night (I'd write all night)
 Lyrics and rhymes (Lyrics and rhymes)
 Tracing these lines through
 Sing these words to the sky (Words to the sky)
 Hoping they find you

Darling, you're a queen
 And I'm just a poet writing these songs
 Hoping you'll notice, notice me
 'Cause I'm just a helpless fool for you
 I'll write this love 'til my hands are numb
 Darling, I'll sing to kingdom come
 You're a queen
 And I'm just a poet writing these songs for you

'Til the day these castle walls come down
 Like Jericho, I'll be singing out
 'Til the day your heart can hear this sound

I'll write this love 'til my hands are numb
 Darling, I'll sing to kingdom come
 You're a queen
 And I'm just a poet writing these songs for you
