John Newman - Fire In Me

```
Tom: C
                                                                I've never left the ring, yeah
apotraste na 3ª casa Em
                                                                And I won't be letting go
Never gonna let you go
                                                                'Cause I still got a fire in me
Em
I'm never gonna let you go
                                                                Em
                                                                I never wanna let it go
Fm
                                                                Fm
I'm starting with my intuition
                                                                I never wanna let it go
                                                                              Bm
I'm starting with my strengths
                                                                I-I-I-I still got a fire in me
                                                                Em
Bm
I'm getting back my old ambitions
                                                                I never wanna let it go
                                                                Em
Returning once again
                                                                I never wanna let it go
Fm
                                                                                Bm
My knuckles are so red and raw
                                                                I-I-I still got a fire in me
G
                                                                Fm
From breaking through these walls
                                                                I never wanna let it go
                                                                Em
Sick of all the others talk
                                                                I never wanna let it go
                                                                               Bm
And I left her of my fault
                                                                I-I-I still got a fire in me
                                                                Em
                                                                I never wanna let it go
                                       Bm
I was a spark in the night but you drown me out
                                                                Em
                                                                I never wanna let it qo
Fm
                        G
                                         Bm
So I'll take the walls inside and I'll burn them down
                                                                G
                                                                               Bm
                                                                I-I-I-I still got a fire in me
                                                                Em
                                                                                      G
                                                                                                    Bm
'Cause I still got a fire in me
                                                                I was a spark in the night but you drown me out
Fm
                                                                Fm
                                                                                  G
                                                                                                         Rm
                                                                So I'll take the walls I'm inside and I'll burn them down
I never wanna let it go
Em
I never wanna let it go
                                                                Em
             Bm
                                                                I was a spark in the night but you drown me out
G
I-I-I still got a fire in me
                                                                Fm
                                                                                   G
                                                                                                        Bm
                                                                So I'll take the walls I'm inside and I'll burn them down
Fm
I never wanna let it go
Em
I never wanna let it go
                                                                'Cause I still got a fire in me
G
               Bm
                                                                Fm
I-I-I-I still got a fire in me
                                                                I never wanna let it go
Fm
                                                                Em
I never wanna let it go
                                                                I never wanna let it go
Em
                                                                G
                                                                            Bm
I never wanna let it go
                                                                I-I-I still got a fire in me
               Rm
                                                                Fm
I-I-I-I still got a fire in me
                                                                I never wanna let it go
Fm
                                                                Fm
                                                                I never wanna let it go
I never wanna let it go
Fm
                                                                G
                                                                           Bm
                                                                I-I-I still got a fire in me
I never wanna let it go
                Bm
                                                                Em
I-I-I-I still got a fire in me
                                                                I never wanna let it go
                                                                Em
                                                                I never wanna let it go
Fm
I've dealt with all my evils
                                                                G
                                                                I-I-I-I still got a fire in me
And I'm dealing with them twice
                                                                Fm
                                                                I never wanna let it go
Rm
There will never be a sequel
                                                                Em
                                                                I never wanna let it go
And the curtain will never rise
                                                                G
                                                                         Bm
                                                                I-I-I still got a fire in me
Em
Although my body has been aching
                                                                          Rm
                                                                I-I-I still got a fire in me
I held on to the ropes, oh no
                                                                I-I-I-I still got a fire in me
```

Acordes

