

John Phillips - Let It Bleed, Genevieve

Intro: E A E A B

Tom:

E
Genevieve lay bleeding in my basement
B
Misconceiving life again A
E Dbm Abm Dbm
Up on the sidewalk, her replacement A
B
Waiting to be skinned

E
Bobby wants a lady from the low lands B A
And I'd like to have one too E Dbm Abm Dbm
Paul said, "One in the bush worth two in your hand" B A
Even then you'll find there are too few

E
Genevieve lay dreaming on my ceiling B A
A thought came, rolling stone, across her mind E Dbm Abm Dbm
Looking down with great feeling

B A
I'll trade you yours for mine

E
Just try to sing in choirs, hear the old gears grind B A
And upstairs they'll say, "There's too much noise" E Dbm Abm Dbm
I tell the lady we'll be quiet B A
She knows boys will be boys

(E B A E Dbm Abm Dbm B A)

E
Gene Gene Gene, what's the matter B A
You'll get your way next time around E Dbm Abm Dbm
Subtract the former from the latter B A
You're fatter than when you were found

E
Genevieve lay bleeding in my basement

(B A E Dbm Abm Dbm B A)

Acordes

