 didn't know flyin' got too high
 B
 Beans for breakfast once again
 E hard to eat 'em from the can
 A
 I've run out of clean utensils
 B E
 I'm a hungry, nasty lonesome man
 E B
 I heard the crows outside my window
 E
 guess it's me they're talkin' about
 A
 The fire you lit has burnt to cinders
 B
 every good thing's fizzled out
 B
 Beans for breakfast once again
 E hard to eat 'em from the can
 A
 Wish you'd come back and wash the dishes
 B E
 I'm a hungry, nasty lonesome man
 E B
 Caught a cold with the window open
 E
 crow droppings on my window sill

A
 Probably got histoplasmosis
 B
 got no gun or I would kill them crows
 B
 Beans for breakfast once again
 E hard to eat 'em from the can
 Plastic forks are a dime a dozen
 B E
 I'm a hungry, nasty lonesome man
 E B
 Finally made it to the mailbox
 E
 felt so bad I thought I'd die
 A
 All I got was a bill from my doctor
 B
 well I guess flyin' ain't so high
 B
 Beans for breakfast once again
 E hard to eat 'em from the can
 Blue tick mattress cold and greasy
 B E
 I'm a hungry, nasty lonesome man
 E
 The house burned down from the fire that I built
 In your closet by mistake after I took all them pills
 B
 But I got out safe in my duck head overalls
 B
 Beans for breakfast once again
 E
 I'm a hungry, nasty lonesome man
