Well, It ain't no use to sit and wonder why, babe
A
If you don't know by now
Am
And It ain't no use to sit and wonder why, babe
A
It will never do anyhow
E
When your roosters a crowin at the break of dawn
A
Look out your window and I'll be gone
Am
You're the reason why I'm trav'lin' on
A
But, Don't think twice, it's all right
Am
An' it ain't no use in turnin' on your light, babe
A
The light I never knowed
Am
An' it ain't no use in turnin' on your light, babe
A
I'm on the dark side of the road
Am
But I wish there was somethin' I could do or say
A
To try and make you change your mind and stay
Am
We never did too much talkin' anyway

A
But don't think twice, it's all right
E
Well, It ain't no use in callin' out my name, gal
A
Like you never done before
Am
It ain't no use in callin' out my name, gal
A
I can't hear you any more
A
I once loved a woman, a child I'm told
E
I give her my heart but she wanted my soul
Am
But don't think twice, it's all right
E
So long honey babe
A
Where I'm bound, I can not tell
Am
But goodbye's too good a word, gal
A
So I'll just kinda say fare thee well
Am
Now I'm not sayin' that you treated me unkind
A
You could have done alot better but I don't mind
E
You just kinda wasted my precious time
A
But don't think twice, it's all right
