

Johnny Cash - If I Were a Carpenter

Tom: D
Intro: A

[Verse]

(Johnny) If I were a G carpenter, and you were a D lady, would you marry me G anyway, would you have my D baby?

(June) If you were a G carpenter, and I were a D lady,
I'd marry you anyway, I would have your A baby.

(Johnny) If a tinker was my G trade, would I still find you? D

(June) I'd be carrying the G pots you made, following behind D you.

[Chorus]

A G A D
(both) Save your love through loneliness, save your love
through sorrow.

(Johnny) I gave you my oneliness, G (both) give me your tomorrow D A

[Instrumental]

G D A (x4)

[Verse]

(Johnny) If I were a G miller, and a mill wheel D grinding A
Would you miss your G coloured blouse, and your soft shoe D A shining?

(June) If you were a G miller, and a mill wheel D grinding A
I'd not miss my G coloured blouse, and my soft shoe D shining. A

[Chorus]

A G A D
(both) Save your love through loneliness, save your love
through sorrow.

(Johnny) I gave you my G oneliness, give me your tomorrow D A

[Verse]

(Johnny) If I worked my G hands in wood, would you still love D me? A

A G D
(June) I'd answer you 'yes I would'. (Johnny) And would you not be above me?

(Johnny) If I were a G carpenter, and you were a D lady, A

(June) I'd marry you anyway, I would have your G baby. D A

[Chorus]

A G A D
(both) Save your love through loneliness, save your love
through sorrow.

(Johnny) I gave you my G oneliness, (both) give me your tomorrow D A

Acordes

