

Johnny Cash - Redemption (ver.2)

Tom: C
Intro: Am

From the Am hands it came down
From the D side it came down
From the E feet it came down
And Am ran to the ground
Between Am heaven and hell
A D teardrop fell
In the E deep crimson dew
The Am tree of life grew

|And the C blood gave life
|To the G branches of the tree
|And the F blood was the price
|That G set the captives free
|And the C numbers that came
|Through the G fire and the flood
F |Clung to the tree

|And were Am redeemed by the blood

From the tree streamed a light
That started the fight
'Round the tree grew a vine
On whose fruit I could dine
My old friend Lucifer came
Fought to keep me in chains
But I saw through the tricks
Of six-sixty-six

{chorus}

From his hands it came down
From his side it came down
From his feet it came down
And ran to the ground
And a small inner voice
Said \"You do have a choice.\
The vine engrafted me
And I clung to the tree

{chorus}

From Am his hands it came down
From D his side it came down
From E his feet it came down
And Am ran to the ground
