

Johnny Cash - Roughneck

tom:

E

A
Born to be a roughneck I'll
E
Never amount to nothin'
E B7 E
Pullin' case and layin' pipe is hard labor

E
Well I was born in a boomer shack
E
Bout a half mile from town
E
Papa was a driller on a wildcat crew

Gb B7
And my mama never was around

E
I learn to cuss when I was two

E
And fight when I was three

E
And by the time I was five there was

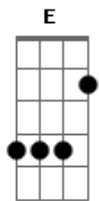

B7 E
No kid alive could ever get the best of me

A
Born to be a roughneck I'll

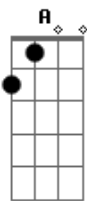

E
Never amount to nothin'

E B7 E

Pullin' case and layin' pipe is hard labor

E
Well I started workin' like a regular

E
Man when I was just about knee high

E
Skinning the knuckles with my two bare

Gb B7
Hands but they never heard me cry

E
I remember walkin' down the road

E
And hearin' somebody say

E
He was born to live a rougneck's life

B7 E
And he's never gonna change his ways

A
Born to be a roughneck I'll

E
Never amount to nothin'

E B7 E
Pullin' case and layin' pipe is hard labor

A
Born to be a roughneck I'll

E
Never amount to nothin'

E B7 E
Pullin' case and layin' pipe is hard labor
