

Johnny Cash - Six White Horses

Tom: D

D

Some folks drink and some folks smoke

Some folks love and some folks don't

Some folks laugh and some folks frown

Some folks here that'll gun you down.

G A7

Goodbye John {goodbye John}

D

Six White Horses come to take you home

G A7

Goodbye John {goodbye John}

D

They took you away before you sang your song.

Some preach wrong and some preach right

Some preach love and some preach fight

Takes every kind to make the world go round

Takes one to gun you down

Goodbye Martin {goodbye Martin}

Six White Horses come to take you home

Goodbye Reverend {goodbye Reverend}

They took you away before you sang your song.

Some people stick pretty close to home

Others are born with that urge to roam

Welcome to our town

Hope nobody tries to gun you down

Goodbye Bobby {goodbye Bobby}

Six White Horses come to take you home

Goodbye Robert {goodbye Robert}

They took you away before you sang your song.

G

Goodbye John {goodbye John}

A7

Goodbye Martin {goodbye Martin}

G

Goodbye Bobby {goodbye Bobby}

A7 D

They took you away before you sang your song.
