 Virgil Cain is my name, and I served on the Danville train
 Till Stonewall's cavalry came, and tore up the tracks again Bm G
 In the winter of '65, we were hungry, just barely alive Bm
 By May 10th, Richmond had fell G
 And it's a time, I remember oh so well. D Bm E

D Bm G D
 The Night, They Drove Old Dixie Down
 And all the bells were ringin' Bm
 The Night, They Drove Old Dixie Down D Bm G D
 And all the people were singing they went Bm
D Bm E G D Db B A D D Db

Bm D G Bm

Back with my wife in Tennessee, when one day, she called to me
 Virgil, quick come see, Virgil there goes the Robert E. Lee Bm G
 Now I don't mind choppin' wood D
 And I don't care if the money's no good Bm G
 Just take what you need and you leave the rest Bm G
 But they never should have taken, the very best. D Bm E

Chorus:

Bm D G Bm D
 Like my father before me, I will work the land
 And like my brother above me, he took a rebel stand Bm
 He was just 18 proud and brave G D
 And a Yankee, laid him in his grave Bm G
 I swear my the mud below my feet D Bm E
 You can't raise the king back up when he's in defeat.
