C                   G              F                 C
You gave me a blanket to keep me from the cold
F          G                C
You gave me a song I learned to sing
                    G                      F                 C
You showed me some beauty through the windows of your soul
        F           G            C
And you showed me a world I've never seen
        F           G           F         C
Each giving to the other love and givin' it away
      F              C                 G
We spent the precious time we knew was borrowed
          C            G         F         C
'Cause you gave me the courage to live with yesterday
         G          C         G  F  C  G  F  C
```
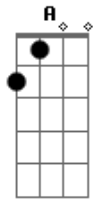

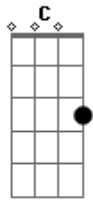

```
And you gave me tomorrow
C             G           F             C
You gave me a candle to light my way to bed
F              G                 C
You erased those shadows I'd been seeing
C              G          F          C
You brought me a pillow to rest my weary head
         F            G            C
You taught me a gentle way of dreaming
        F         G            F             C
And if you leave me I'll be richer when you go
     F         C             G
A richer with the loving gift you gave me
             C         G       F        C
'Cause you gave me a blanket to keep me from the cold
G             C
And you gave me a baby
