

Johnny Huynh - Miss You Tonight

tom:
Dm

This house is an empty grave
Just silence in these four walls
I'm haunted by picture frames of someone that I can't call
Sleeping with my mistakes
Right where you used to lay
The clouds never looked so gray
But the rain just won't sweep you away
I can't shake this
I can't break this fall
I'm slamming the door
And i'm killing the lights
Cause i hate that i miss you tonight
Say it's for the best
But it hurts every time
Cause I know there's no good in goodbye

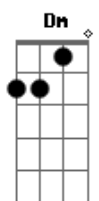

Yeah
My heart didn't break it's still stuck in a place
In a world where it's just you and I
We're still frozen in a frames where noboby's to blame
For the way that our souls are untied
I can't deny
I hate that I
Miss you tonight

Am C
Thought it was meant to be
Gm F
Guess you're someone that I can't keep to myself
Am C
You put me on my feet
Gm F
Then pulled me underneath now
Am C
I can't shake this I can't break this

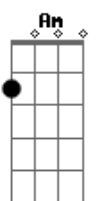

Fall
Am C
So i'm slamming the door
Gm F
And i'm killing the lights
Am C
Cause I hate that I miss you tonight
Gm F
Say it's for the best
Am C
But it hurts every time
Gm F
Cause I know there's no good in goodbye

Yeah
Am C
My heart didn't break it's
Gm F
Still stuck in a place
Am C
In a world where it's just you and I
Gm F
We're still frozen in frames
Am C Gm F
Where nobody's to blame for the way that our souls are untied
Am C
I can't deny
Gm F
I hate that I
F
Miss you tonight
Am C
I can't deny
Gm F
I hate that I
F
Miss you tonight
