

JoJo - Lonely Hearts

```
Switch up and ghost on us
                            tom:
                B (forma dos acordes no tom de G )
Capostraste na 4º casa
                                                                 I cannot fuck me up like you
Intro: F Dm Am A7
F Dm Am A7
                                                                                 Dm
                                                                 I'm insecure enough (oh)
                                                                        Am
                                                                 And I don't need to be guessin' if you care
[Primeira Parte]
                                                                 [Refrão]
I know myself well
                                                                 F
                    Am
                                                                                   Dm
                                                                                                              Am
I know just what to do with my own touch
                                                                 Α7
                                                                How can I work on me if I'm working on your body? (Working on your body)
I can spray?my?Chanel
               Am
                                                                 I know one thing
In this empty hotel king bed at the Roosevelt
                                                                 F Dm
                                                                                     Am
                                                                 Lonely hearts won't break (no)
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                                                Α7
                                                                 Hearts won't break (no)
                                                                 F Dm
Where?I can't abuse my trust
                                                                 Lonely hearts won't break (no)
                                                                               Α7
Switch up and ghost on us
                                                                 Hearts won't break (no)
                                                                 [Bridge]
I cannot fuck me up like you
                Dm
                                                                 I'm likin' bein' alone
I'm insecure enough
And so tired of guessin' if you care
                                                                 Emotions under control
[Refrão]
                                                                 Right now is only for me (me)
                  Dm
Α7
                                                                 Just tryna find myself
How can I work on me if I'm working on your body? (Working on your body)
                                                                 I don't need nobody's help
                                                                 So don't take it personally
I know one thing
                                                                 [Refrão]
Lonely hearts won't break (no)
                                                                 Oh, I know one thing
                                                                 F Dm
              Α7
                                                                 Lonely hearts won't break (no)
Hearts won't break (no)
                                                                                Α7
Lonely hearts won't break (no)
                                                                 Hearts won't break (no)
              Α7
                                                                 F Dm
                                                                 Lonely hearts won't break (no)
Hearts won't break (no)
                     Am
                                                                                Α7
       Hearts won't break
                                                                 Hearts won't break (no)
[Segunda Parte]
                                                                Me if I'm working
I could pick up the phone right now
                                                                 Working on your body
And make that 2 AM call, I know just what to say
                                                                 Me if I'm working
But that \operatorname{ain't} what I need right now
                                                                 Me if I'm working
                     Am
And I won't let my wants get in my way
                                                                 Me if I'm working on your body
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                                            Α7
                                                                Me if I'm working
'Cause you might abuse my trust (oh)
```

Acordes

