

Jorge Rivera-Herrans - Just a Man

tom:
Intro: Bbadd9 C Bbadd9 C Dm

[Odysseus]

I look into your eyes and I
Think back to the son of mine
You're as old as he was
When I left for war

(Bbadd9) F
Will these actions haunt my days?
Every man I've slain?
Is the price I pay endless pain?
Close your eyes and spare yourself the view
How could I hurt you?

I'm just a man
Who's trying to go home
Even after all the years away from what I've know
I'm just a man

Who's fighting for his life
Deep down I would trade the world to see my son and wife
I'm just a man

But when does a comet become a meteor?
When does a candle become a blaze?
When does a man become a monster?

When does a ripple become a tidal wave?
When does the reason become the blame?
When does a man become a monster?

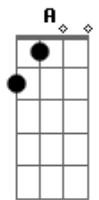

[Soldiers and Odysseus]

When does a comet become a meteor?
When does a candle become a blaze? (Forgive me)
When does a man become a monster? (Forgive me)
When does a man become a monster? (Forgive me)

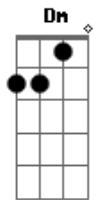

[Odysseus]

I'm just a man
