

Josh Baldwin - Peace

Intro: 2x: Am G C In the land of my heart in the fathoms of my soul When the waters of my fears begin to rise I feel Your love taking hold In the valley of my mind in the road of the unknown When the shadows of my doubts are closing in You are the light that brings me home Refrão: When I breathe in I don?t understand but I can feel it Every waking moment in Your presence This peace won?t let me go There is freedom In laying all my worries at Your feet again Even in my struggle I?m surrendering Your peace won?t let me go When my strength is nearly gone When my wells have all run dry
