

Josh Golden - You're Always Loved

Tom: F

She's the part in the movie where it all adds up

So caught up in her eyes, can't look away I'm hypnotized

She's the hope in war when things look rough

Won't give up this fight, she'll be mine tonight

I will never hurt you, no. I will never desert you

See, there's a lot of girls in this world though they have nothing on you

I will be there? I'll be there

When the words just come out wrong

And you're sick of the love songs

I will be there? I'll be there

When your strength is now all gone

And you need someone to lean on

Even when you stop loving yourself

I'll be there to help

And when you're giving up

Just know you're always loved

You're always loved

She's the color in my cheeks when I talk too much

And I blush all the time, she's embarrassment that I love to find

I will never hurt you, no. I will never desert you

There's a lot of girls in this world though they have nothing on you

I will be there? I'll be there

When the words just come out wrong

And you're sick of the love songs

I will be there? I'll be there

When your strength is now all gone

And you need someone to lean on

Even when you stop loving yourself

I'll be there to help

And when you're giving up

Just know you're always loved

You're always loved. You're always loved. Loved by me

Said I will be there, I'll be there

when the words just come out wrong

And you're sick of this love song

I will be there? I'll be there

When your strength is now all gone

And you need someone to lean on

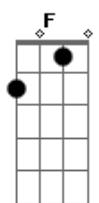

Even when you stop loving yourself

I'll be there to help

Just know you're always loved
