C
I'll be right behind you, Josephine Em
C
I won't leave you waiting in between Em
F
And the cigarette you bummed from me is almost burning out Am
F G
You suck it till your fingers burn, then you throw it to the ground

C Em
I'll be right behind you, Josephine Em
C
Even after everything we've seen Em
F Am
In this sterile room with blinding lights and faces pointing down G
F
I only want to scream but still I just can't make a sound

C E7
Now hold my hand, I'll hold my breath Am
Am F
There's nothing in this world we really own C
Am E7
And Jesus Christ, if you tore my heart out F
Am F
The only thing I'd feel is less alone
(less alone)

C Em
I'll be right behind you, Josephine C Em
C
I won't leave you waiting in this dream F Am
While you watch the people speaking words you can't quite comprehend G
F
You ask me if I'd pinch you but my fingers wouldn't bend C Em
C Em
I'll be right behind you, Josephine C Em

Just like I was when we were seventeen
F Am
I guess that's only been a year but still it feels like 34
F G
I don't feel like I am living in the same skin anymore

C E7
Now hold my hand, I'll hold my breath Am
Am F
There's nothing in this world we really own C
Am E7
And Jesus Christ, if you tore my heart out F
Am F
The only thing I'd feel is less alone
(less alone)

(C Em C Em F Am F G)

C Em
I'll be right behind you, Josephine C Em
C
Even when my soul's an amputee F Am
F G
And my bleeding heart is sinking in the lake inside my chest
F G
So I grab what I can cling to and I leave behind the rest

C E7
Now hold my hand, I'll hold my breath Am
Am F
There's nothing in this world we really own C
Am E7
And Jesus Christ, if you tore my heart out F
Am F
The only thing I'd feel is less alone

C E7
Now hold my hand, and take my breath Am
Am F
And leave behind the things you'll never own C E7
Am F
And Jesus Christ, please tear my heart out
Am F
I wanna feel a little less alone
F
Less alone
(C)
