

Josiah Queen - Two Wooden Beams

tom:

Bm

Intro: Bm G D A

[Primeira Parte]

What is love, what is His name?

Who is His Son, is He okay?

Oh, was it all a part of His plans

The thorns on His brow, the nails in

His hands?

[Pré-Refrão]

I'm not perfect

I'm purchased by blood

I gave him nothing, and He gave it all

All the words in the world aren't

Enough

Cause I can't define, can't deny, oh

[Refrão]

Love, it bleeds

It's whipped and it's bruised

It was hung on a tree

All for me, love is the blood stains

On two wooden beams

[Segunda Parte]

Where is love, where did it go?

Lately it seems like nobody knows

In a world where money is to gain

Traded true love for pocket change

[Pré-Refrão]

I'm not perfect

I'm purchased by blood

I gave him nothing, and He gave it all

I gave him nothing, and He gave it all

All the words in the world aren't

Enough

Cause I can't define, can't deny, oh

[Refrão]

Love, it bleeds

It's whipped and it's bruised

It was hung on a tree

All for me, love is the blood stains

On two wooden beams

( G A Bm D )
( G A Bm D )

[Ponte]

Lord knows I tried

But I can't describe

No, I can't define, can't deny, oh

[Refrão]

Love, it bleeds

It's whipped and it's bruised

It was hung on a tree

All for me, love is the blood stains

On two wooden beams

Love, it bleeds

It's whipped and it's bruised

It was hung on a tree

All for me, love is the blood stains

On two wooden beams

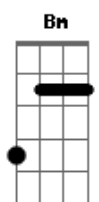

[Final]

Love is the blood stains on two wooden

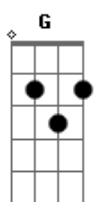

Beams

On two wooden beams

Acordes

© ukulele-chords.com

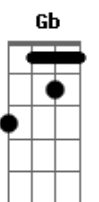

© ukulele-chords.com

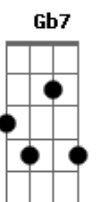

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com