

Joss Stone - Fell in love with a boy

```
Tom: B
                                                                 I said it once before but it bears repeating
                                              Bb )
                                                                 Refrão:
 (com acordes na forma de
Capostraste na 1ª casa
 Solo de introdução:
                                                                 Oooh, oooh, oooh (4X)
                                                                 Parte 3:
Solo do refrão:
                                                                 Fell in love with a boy
                                                                 I fell in love once and almost completely
                                                                 He's in love with the world
                                                                 And sometimes these feelings can be so misleading
Parte 1:
                                                                 He turns and says "are you alright"
Fell in love with a boy
                                                                 Oh, I must be fine 'cause my heart's still beating
I fell in love once and almost completely
                                                                 Come and kiss me by the riverside
He's in love with the world
And sometimes these feelings can be so misleading
                                                                 Sarah says it's cool she dont consider it cheating
He turns and says "are you alright"
                                                                 Passagem:
Oh, I must be fine 'cause my heart's still beating
                                                                 Am
Come and kiss me by the riverside
                                                                 Don't go telling no more...
                                                                 Don't go telling no more...
Sarah says it's cool she dont consider it cheating
                                                                 Don't go telling no more lies on Sarah
Refrão:
                                                                 Don't go telling no more...
Oooh, oooh, oooh (4X)
                                                                 Don't go telling no more...
Parte 2:
                                                                 Don't go telling no more lies on Sarah
Am
Red hair with a curl
                                                                 Refrão:
Mellow roll for the flavour and the eyes were peeping
Can't keep away from the boy
                                                                 Oooh, oooh, oooh (4X)
The two sides of my brain need to have a meeting
                                                                  Ponte:
Can't think of anything to do
My left brain knows all love is fleeting
                                                                 Can't think of anything to do
He's still looking for something new
                                                                 My left brain knows all love is fleeting
                                                                 He's still looking for something new
I said it once before but it bears repeating
                                                                 I said it once before but it bears repeating
Refrão:
                                                                 Refrão:
Oooh, oooh, oooh (4X)
                                                                 Oooh, oooh, oooh (4X)
Ponte:
                                                                 Final:
Can't think of anything to do
My left brain knows all love is fleeting
                                                                 Gonna tell you what's on my mind
He's still looking for something new
                                                                 Im gonna tell you what's on my mind
                                                                  'Cause it bears repeating...
```

Acordes

