

Journey - Don't Stop Believin'

```
Working hard to get my fill
Intro: E B Dbm A
                                                         Everybody wants a thrill
          E B Abm A
                                                         Payin' anything to roll the dice
Primeira Parte:
                                                            Abm A E
                                                          Just one more time
 Just a small town girl
                                                         Livin' in a lonely world
                                                          Some were born to sing the blues
She took the midnight train
                                                               В
                                                          Oh, the movie never ends

                                                         Abm A
It goes on and on and on and on
Going anywhere

  B Dbm
                                                         Strangers waiting
Just a city boy
Born and raised in South Detroit
                                                         Up and down the boulevard
B
He took the midnight train
                                                          Their shadows searching in the night
   Abm A
Going anywhere
                                                         Streetlights, people
 H.N .
                                                          Living just to find emotion
(E B Dbm A)
                                                         Hiding somewhere in the night
                                                         Solo: E B Dbm A
E B Abm A
(E B Abm A)
A singer in a smoky room
                                                          (Dobra 1)
The smell of wine and cheap perfume
For a smile, they can share the night
                                                          (Dobra 2)
     Abm
It goes on and on and on and on
Segunda Parte:
                                                         Refrão:
Strangers waiting
                                                          Don't stop believin'
                                                                     Α
                                                         Hold on to the feelin'
Up and down the boulevard
                                                         Streetlights people
Their shadows searching in the night
                                                                     В
Streetlights, people
                                                          Don't stop believin'
Living just to find emotion
