

JP Cooper - Colour Me In Gold

Tom: G

Intro: Em D Em D D

Em D
You colour me in gold
Em D
Lips like petals on my throat
Em D
And those fingertips like paintbrush strokes
C Bb7 A
Paper boats softly float like a song we wrote
G D
But summer comes and summer goes
G D
You change your hair, you change your clothes
G D
The books you read help you explore
C A Em D Em D D
The world that you believed in once before

Em D
You colour me in gold
Em D
Kiss the freckles on my nose
Em D C
Bb7
With those blood red pomegranate lips taking sips, hand on hip
A
Your face could launch a thousand ships
G D
But winter comes and brings the snow

G D
You change your job, you change your home
G Bm Bb
C Em
Still reading books about the ghost of a world you can't be living anymore
Gbm
And after all, you've been nothing but good to me
A A7 Em
And the only way that I can pay you back
Gbm G
Is to daily seek those distant memories
A
While I'm standing next to you

G D
So when spring time comes and blossoms grow
G D
Come take my hand, can we expose
G Bm Bb
C
The hideaways, the hidden doors, the stories we believed in
Bb C
(Oh, oh) the land that we both dreamed in
D Em D Em D Em
Once before (oh)
D
You colour me in gold
