

JP Cooper - In The Silence

tom:
Intro: G G G
[Primeira Parte]
I've been seeking silver linings
Feeling incomplete
So enamored, stutter, stammered, oh my voice was broke
Like a poor man stood before the queen
I tripped over my tongue before I spoke \ensuremath{\mathsf{I}}
[Refrão]
And though I never said it with words {\sf G}
It was love in the silence
Even now after all of these years \begin{picture}(60,0) \put(0,0){\line(0,0){100}} \put(0,0){\line
You're the light in my darkness
[Segunda Parte]
Used to share that feeling, dreaming,
gazing at the bedroom ceiling
Oh oh now I lay here wishing you'd come home
[Refrão]
