

Júlia Monerat - Everybody

tom:

C

Everybody is dancing, drinking and laughing

And I'm sitting on the couch

With tears in my eyes

And thinking "why am I here?"

I want to have fun and relax, but everybody

Looks at me and laughs

It's all getting complicated

And I feel worse everytime

[Pré-Refrão]

I want to smile and laugh

With everybody

But nobody wants to smile

And laugh with me

I want to smile and laugh

With everybody

But nobody wants to smile

And laugh with me

[Refrão]

Why do they treat me like this?

Okay, I can be pretty, maybe talented

But what's the point if I'm alone?

All alone ?

I wonder every night before I sleep

"If I was more like them

Maybe they like me more."

What am I doing wrong?

Why do they treat me like shit?

Tell me the reason please

Maybe I can "tighten the screws"

And be cool

[Pré-Refrão]

I want to smile and laugh

With everybody

But nobody wants to smile

And laugh with me

Why do they treat me like this?

Okay, I can be pretty, maybe talented

But what's the point

Why do they treat me like this?

Okay, I can be pretty, maybe talented

But what's the point if I'm alone?

All alone ?

[Final]

I need an answer

How do i make someone like me?

If I change my hair? If I change my clothes?

Maybe if I disappear they'll like me... obviously they gonna like me
