

Júlia Monerat - So Fast

tom: Em

Life went by so fast!

I got so many things

But in some moments

They look so little

I cannot regret

I put so many jewels

But in some moments

I feel so small

Could I have done more?

Could it be possible for me to be happier than I am now?

And, and you?

Would you have been happier without me?

Could I have done more?

Could it be possible for me to be happier than I am now?

And, and you?

Would you have been happier without me?

Could I have made her happier?

After so long

That twinkle in your eyes

But in some moments

I still miss you so much

Could I have done more?

Could it be possible for me to be happier than I am now?

And, and you?

Would you have been happier without me?

Could I have done more?

Could it be possible for me to be happier than I am now?

And, and you?

Would you have been happier without me?

Could I have done more?

Could it be possible for me to be happier than I am now?

And, and you?

Could I have made her happier?
