

Juliabritomsc - Little Bird

tom:
 I'm searching in the sky
 Hoping to find you my little bird
 Such a lonely night
 If only you knew how much it hurts
 Not to hear your voice
 Not to hear your voice
 I'm trying to move on
 But I still need you my little bird
 I'm scared of the unknown
 If only you knew how much it hurts
 Not to hear your voice
 I miss your voice
 I've been praying to God every night
 To let me dream of you
 And if it's not too much to ask
 Show up on my window
 My little bird
 My little bird

My little bird
 All the letters that I write
 It's all for you my little bird
 You thought that I'd be fine
 If only you knew how much it hurts
 Not to hear your voice
 I miss your voice
 I've been praying to God every night
 To let me dream of you
 And if it's not too much to ask
 Show up on my window
 When this song plays out
 You should know
 How hard it is to let you go
 My little bird
 My little bird
 [Interlúdio]
